ZAKAAT

Zakaat is fardh upon a person if s/he is A Muslim, An Adult, Sane, and owns wealth equal to the value of Nisaab. Nisaab is the amount of wealth, which makes one liable for payment of Zakaat and must remain in his/her possession for one Lunar year. N.B. The value for Nisaab varies according to fluctuation in market price of Gold/Silver

Value of Nisaab.

7 ½ Tolas gold = 87.48g

Price of gold on 05/02/24 is (a) £ 51.82 per gm (source: www.bullionbypost.co.uk)

Gold Nisaab = 87.48 x (a) = £ 4533.21

52½ Tolas silver 612.35g

Price of silver on 05/02/24 is (b) £ 0.58 per gm (source: www.bullionbypost.co.uk)

Silver Nisaab = 612.35 x (b) = £ 355.16

The lower of these two values, (c) £355.16 is the value of Nisaab.

If one has in his/her possession mixed wealth (e.g. gold, silver, cash etc) equal to (c) £ 355.16 that has remained in his/her possession for one whole lunar year then Zakaat of 2 ½ % (1/40) of the total aggregate balance (after deducting debts) is due.

Zakaat on Shares

If the shares are bought only for the sake of reselling them to make a profit (Capital Gain), then Zakaat will have to be paid on the market value of the shares.

If shares are bought with the intention of benefiting from the dividend then, if the company is trading, e.g. if it is dealing in cloth, iron, steel, machinery goods, cement, or supplies electric power etc, then Zakaat will have to be paid on the market value of the shares and the dividend. However, machinery used in the business, factories/buildings, land, fixtures and fittings, and furniture are all exempt and one is allowed to subtract these from the total assets. (These figures can be obtained from the Annual Report). e.g..

Buildings	Machinery	Stock	Raw Materials	Cash
£30	£30	£15	£15	£10
Zakaat due on £40 only

If the company does not trade but realises rent (i.e. bus, train, air companies), then Zakat will only be paid on the dividend and not on the value of the shares.

If the wealth decreased lower than the Nisaab in the course of the Year but it was equivalent or more than the Nisaab in the beginning and at the end of the year, it will be considered as if he/she owned the Nisaab for the full year.

WHITE GOLD: Due to the fact that 75% of White Gold consists of REAL GOLD and 25% of other material – ALL OF IT WILL BE CONSIDERED AS GOLD, Hence ZAKAAT will have to be given on White Gold.

BUSINESS GOODS: What is bought with the intention of selling with the profit. If at the time of buying intention of business was not made it will not be defined as business goods.

PROPERTIES: If the property was bought with the intention of Renting and not for Reselling than Zakaat will only be liable on accumulative Rent and not on the value of the property.
